General Updates:

- Reminder: Departmental Fair will be held on March 12th from 10am to 3pm with SUS. Each department will have a table there and you must contact me if you cannot attend.

Room booking:

- I've been in communications with the Deputy Provost about what can be done. It looks like having access to banner (the room booking system) isn't an option but there might be a way to see what rooms are unavailable at a given time through minerva

Arts lounge:

- Panels came out beautiful! I have a midterm on Thursday so we'll probably be putting them up on Friday
- We also have a new microwave, yay!
- We're also hoping to rename the rooms in the lounge through some sort of interesting project with the Marketing Committee

FEARC:

- Quebec City was a huge success!

AUsec:

- Conference has been pushed back a bit
- Working with Lara from Snax to find good reusable cutlery and mugs to be sold there
