

Senate

- Dean of Students came to Senate Caucus on Sep 22
  - Discussed Assessment Policy, mental health at McGill, harm reduction and sexual assault policy, and Charter revision
  - Had Senate orientation on Sep 24th--learned how Senate works
  - McGill App will allow you to sync Minerva on it in December (hopefully)

- ii) Curriculum Committee
  - Met Sep 29 (oral report)
- McLennan-Redpath Library Food and Noise Policy Working Group
  - Facing some opposition from faculty in consultations, mostly with the food parts of policy. I will likely be going to a meeting with some faculty in late October to discuss and address their concerns.
- Know Your Rights
  - Have met a few times with core work group, meeting again Oct. 2
  - Planning on organizing campaign into three sub-working groups:
    - 1) Research group: taking detailed look into the Charter of Student Rights, Assessment Policy, and other documents
      - Led by Alice Feldman, AUS' KYR researcher last year
    - 2) Advertising group: lead campaign on advertising results of survey, research findings & helping students to know rights
      - Aiming to have wider campaign launch in January
      - Led by Sam Gregory (ran SSMU KYR campaign)
    - 3) Advocacy group: advocating for changes to Charter of Student Rights, Assessment Policy, and other documents
      - Several already have revisions planned this year
      - Led by Erin Sobat
  - Plenty of interesting exciting ways to get involved in this project!
- Renaming JD and Champagne Rooms
  - Special listserv callout for nominations should be sent out soon!
