

EASSA Department Report

AUS Council Meeting: 27th of January 2016

Language exchange sessions

- we had one yesterday at Gerts
- we are planning on organizing 3 more sessions during the semester: one in Mandarin, Japanese and Korean

Journal

- is titled Orientations and will reunite various academic papers and creative work written by McGill students
- we are planning on releasing it towards the end of the semester

Movie Screenings

- we will also be participating in the Beijing Film Festival, which is being organized by one of the professors in the East Asian Studies department

Website

- we are planning on having a new website
- we have contacted several webpage designers
- hopefully we will be able to have a new website this semester

Symposium

- we are working with graduate students right now
- we will be working more on this in the coming weeks

Wine and Cheese

- we will be holding one at the beginning of February
- it will be special since we will be celebrating the Chinese New Year at the same time
