

Report of the AGELF executive council, AUS Council January 13th 2016

First meeting of the semester was Tuesday, January 12th.

-We devised a calendar for the upcoming “5 à 7”:

-January 28

-February 26

-March 24

All the “5 à 7” will happen in the bar “Bénélux” on Sherbrooke street.

-We decided on a date for the “Party de fin de session”: April 28.

-“L’Otium des Mercredis” starts this week. Every second Wednesday of each month, a doctoral student gives an informal, hour-long conference in the French Lounge. Any student in the department (grad, undergrad) is welcome to drop by at any time. The first conference is this Wednesday (January 13th), at 1pm.

-Frédéric Doré, Jeann Simoneau and Ghislaine Le Moing will meet next week to start preparing l’AGELF’s honours symposium. Proposed date for the symposium: April 18th.