

Society of Linguistics Undergraduates of McGill (SLUM)
Departmental Report for
AUS Council—January 27th, 2016

Met on Friday January 15th; decided on Fridays at 3:30 for future meetings

Academic

- Review sessions
 - Decided which classes are probably getting review sessions
 - Submitted peer tutoring forms
- New requirements added to the major program

Projects

- Cellar Door
 - Will print a few copies, but it will be mainly online
 - Set a February 1st deadline for submissions
 - Haven't settled on a release date yet
- Reading Group
 - Get together every 2 weeks to discuss a linguistics-related research paper
 - We think this will be a great way for some of our newer members to practice reading academic literature as well to broaden our knowledge of the field
 - Posted survey for availability
- Language exchange
 - Sending out a survey next week to see what languages students prefer

Events

- McCCLU (McGill Canadian Conference for Linguistic Undergraduates)
 - Showcases undergraduate research across Canada and the US
 - March 18-19th, 2016
 - Website is up and running; accepting abstract submissions now
 - <http://mccclu2016.wix.com/mccclu>
 - Talked about advertising
- Prof Wine & Cheese

General

- Bake sale
- Samosa sales
- SLUMwear