

Religious Studies Undergraduate Society Departmental Report
Wednesday, March 23rd, 2016

Upcoming Language Lit & Cultures Apartment Crawl!

Ordered apparel for the first Religious Studies hoodie purchase – we recommend that other departments also contact professors when ordering apparel as we had a lot of success with professors ordering for themselves and their graduate students. Organizing a potluck for the Religious Studies community.

Looking for new applicants to our executive, if you know any Religious Studies students who might be interested email us at rsusmcgill@gmail.com
