

I had a great time at Grad Ball this Saturday, hope those of you who attended had fun too!

Report of the AUS VP Academic – March 23, 2015

Arts Valedictorian Selection & Teaching Awards

The Selection Committee met on Thursday March 17th and has shortlisted candidates and will be conducting interviews this Tuesday, March 22nd. The Selection Committee has chosen the Teaching Awards winners, and I am currently working on the event details for the Teaching Awards Reception on April 5th.

Curriculum Committee

Meeting Monday March 21st. Will report orally on findings.

HSSLAC

The Humanities & Social Sciences Library Advisory Committee met on Monday 14th, I could not attend due to having a seminar at the same time, I expect Senator Sobat to report on findings.

Art Student Employment Fund

Will be in contact with the fund recipients to see how to promote the new openings. Expect some additional information on the AUS website and listserv for some exciting summer opportunities!

Misc

- Transitioning meetings to come: OASIS, Associate Dean of Graduate Studies and Research, AUS Publishing
- Some questions related to profs bending some rules with regards to syllabi (adding midterms, assigning work during reading week) have come up. Will
