Report of the Classics Students' Association (CSA), AUS Council (October 19, 2016)

- For the last few weeks, we have been accepting mentor/mentee applications for an informal mentorship program for Classics undergrads. However, there was not much interest, so it may be postponed until the beginning of next year, when we can reach more students.
- Hirundo, the Classical Studies journal, is now accepting editor applications until Oct 28.
- One of our members-at-large has started a Latin reading group in the Classics Lounge, every Friday from 12-1PM. It is open to everyone, though most attendees are intermediate/advanced language students looking for extra practice.
- CSA apparel order forms will be sent out some time this week, hopefully with the next listserv. We received several entries for the pun contest, and the winner was "It's all Greek to me" – written in Ancient Greek!
- Our Halloween lecture series with the HSA has been renamed Haunted Histories, and is taking place next Wednesday, Oct 26. We have finalized details with the four professors who will be presenting. All are welcome.
- We are holding a bake sale in the Leacock lobby on Oct 31. The CSA exec are hard at work on some suitably spooky recipes.

Our next meeting will be on Friday, October 21 at 3:30PM, in Leacock 817.

Respectfully submitted,

Claudia Shek
