

Report of the AUS VP Academic - November 2nd, 2016

Faculty Committees

I was unable to attend the Humanities and Social Sciences Library Advisory Committee on 10/24.

Student Rights

Have received a few reports in the last couple of weeks regarding academic rights violations and am in the process of addressing them. If it involves your department, I've reached out to your VP Academic!

Academic Affairs Committee

Met last Monday to discuss plans for the year-- will most likely be focusing on student rights and study abroad for the near future.

LPC

Met Friday morning to choose where we wanted to focus on-- currently looking at either the fishbowl or the cybertheque to focus our improvements on.

AIO

Funding the Arts Undergraduate Research Event for $500. Also, am moving a referendum question for today's Council

ASEF

Working on finalizing the details with the Faculty of Arts regarding which professors will be able to receive funding in the future-- will have a question for the winter referendum period. Also have been asked to assess the current fee-level with regards to both the ASEFC and Work Study.

DART

Had the second DART meeting of the year last Wednesday, was very productive!

Essay Centre

Status quo.

Publications

Had their roundtable last

Student Life & Learning

Working to get an Arts Cram program up for Economics for this semester-- cautiously optimistic!

Respectfully submitted,

Erik Partridge, VP Academic
