Report of the International Development Studies Students' Association (IDSSA) to the AUS Council (01/11/17)

General Updates

- Office hours are continuing in Leacock 541 on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12pm-5pm.

Past Projects / Events

- On December 1st the IDSSA hosted a training session on the UN Sustainable Development Goals, delivered by Ravi Karkara, a senior advisor to the Assistant Secretary General at the UN. The training was incredibly well attended with over 300 participants.

Current Projects / Events

- The IDSSA is offering apparel orders for students in the IDS program. Information on how to order these will be distributed via Facebook and our Listserv.
- The Publications Committee is meeting to accept submissions and start to form the IDS journal.

Upcoming Projects / Events

- Upcoming projects will be discussed at our executive meeting on Monday, January 9th. As this report was written before this meeting, important information from the meeting will be communicated verbally for council.

The next meeting of the IDSSA is to be determined based on the availability of our office space.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nicholas Milum
VP External, IDSSA
