Report of McGill Industrial Relations Association

About MIRA

- MIRA is an organization that was founded in order to promote the Industrial Relations program at McGill University in a manner that facilitates the making of every student's voice in that program heard. The organization focuses on educating our students on the importance of bringing peace, positive growth, and social harmony to the workplace. We aim to achieve this goal through organizing various events and providing a platform by which students can find out and share information as well as express their ideas.

MIRA's Goals This Year

- Increase social engagement of IR students with social events.
- Ensure the provision of academic resources to support the success of Industrial Relations students in program courses.
- Plan a successful ILO Conference in the tradition of previous MIRA Executive Councils.
- Participate in the planning and activities of CERI, an inter-university Industrial Relations case competition in the greater Montreal Area.

- Welcome Back Party - MIRA hosted a Welcome Back party for its constituency on September 19th.

Upcoming Events

- Bake Sale - MIRA has planned a Bake Sale for September 28th in the Leacock Building
