

Report of International Development Studies Students' Association
Wednesday, October 25th, 2017

General Updates

- Hosting an IDSSA wine and cheese on Tuesday, October 24 inviting faculty members from various disciplines, including and related to international development, and all students in Arts 160.
- Hired team of copy editors for the Chrysalis Journal. We are still on the lookout for a layout editor.
- Currently recruiting committee members for the IDSSA's Development Policy Case Competition, the first of its kind at McGill, scheduled for the Winter 2018 semester
- Looking for academic peer tutors to provide tutoring sessions for IDS core courses, specifically INTD 200, ECON 208, ECON 313.

Upcoming Events

- Organizing a speaker event which will feature a speaker from Cuso International.
- Planning a documentary screening and panel discussion on development issues.
- Will hold sale of departmental swag this November.

Respectfully Submitted,

Mehar Gujral
IDSSA VP External Affairs