

Report #4 for SLUM
(The Society of Linguistics Undergraduates at McGill)
Date of Submission: November 5, 2017

Fourth Departmental Meeting

- The third meeting with the SLUM Council executive members took place on Oct 30, 2017

Matters:

Past Events

- B&P on Oct. 26th, Bake Sale on Oct. 24th and tabling at McGill Open House went very well
 - For the future:
 - Might help to stagger pizza orders at B&P
 - Reminder that only wine/beer allowed under liquor permit

First year Reps

- Finnley and Joanna - Joanna could not attend the meeting as she had a midterm

Working Group for Managing Power Relationships

- Initiative by Professor Meghan Clayards to build a safe and productive environment within the Department of Linguistics
- Looking for two SLUM execs to join the group (TBD)

CLAUSE Brainstorming Session

- Took place on Nov 1, 6-6:45PM
 - Quick kickoff meeting organized by CLAUSE coordinator Emily Goodwin

Wine & Cheese in Winter

- SLUM President Hayley will be emailing professors to decide on date

SLUMwear update

- Order forms deadline was Friday, Nov 3
 - Tea will process orders over the weekend, submit them by this week

Upcoming events

Samosa Sale

- Table booked for Nov. 13th, 11:30 (Leacock)

Trivia Night/ CogSci Mixer @ Gerts - Nov. 2nd

- SLUM VP Events has met with CogSci exec
- Might be postponed to Nov. 16 as there might not be enough time to advertise
