Report of Canadian Studies Association of Undergraduate Students – CSAUS, AUS Council 31 October 2018

Initial Notes

- Six executive meetings have been held so far;
- Alerted on 26 September that the Faculty of Arts is cutting the major, honours and joint honours programs for Canadian Studies! Minor will continue, but all other programs will end in the next 3 years, as declared students graduate
- Jointly-held event with QSSA at the Chateau Ramezay happening on November 10 - initial planning/tickets have been readied, ticket sales to begin on Thursday, November 2nd
- Executive photos have been taken and sent to the President, will be disseminated via Facebook and the McGill Institute for the Study of Canada (MISC) website shortly

Upcoming

- Our first event of the year, co-hosted with QSSA is happening on 10 November, at the Chateau Ramezay!
 - Meeting on 30 October to finalize prices/logistics
- VP Academic working on liaising with Prof. Potter to discuss our CANS 200 Study Sessions - thanks to AUS for providing funding this year!
 - Email outreach hasn't worked so VP Academic will try and talk to him before one of his classes
- VP Academic will also follow up with Prof. Scholtz about the minor and possible changes to be made
- Secretary and President will meet in the next two weeks to discuss the publications manual, to help transition Canadian Content publishing in future years given all current editorial board members are leaving this year
- VP Communications focusing on making listservs a bi-weekly project, with new content from the Canadian Studies Network
 - Updating our page on the MISC's website as well, with Facebook plugin and updated photos

Next Meeting

- Next CSAUS Executive meeting: Wednesday, November 14th @ 11:30am - Location TBC
- Priorities at the next CSAUS Exec meeting will be to plan the CANS 200 Study Sessions, to begin concrete preparations for the winter publishing season, and to organize our end-of-semester pub night.

Respectfully Submitted,
Aidan Fehr, Secretary
