Report of East Asian Studies Students' Association

General Update

- First EASSA meeting was held to outline plans on September 13th.
- Potential events for the academic year was discussed, each semester will include one (1) academic event and one (1) fun event. A total of four (4) for the year.
- Merchandise decisions will be made soon, estimated for end of September / early October. We would like to maybe hold a design competition in the department as part of the project.
- We decided to continue the language exchange project (Buddy Program) from last year. The VP Academic is reaching out to last year's team to find out more information on that.
- The next meeting will be held on Friday September 27th.

Upcoming Events

Fall 2019

- Wine & Cheese event - we are hoping to do that on November 5th / 12th, depending on availabilities
- Language Exchange - meet up event potentially on October 6-8th

Winter 2020

- Lunar New Year Crawl - potentially on January 25th, 2020
- Speaker Series - more information to be determined

Respectfully Submitted,
Yadan Yang, VP External
