

Report of the German Studies Association (October 2, 2019)

Present

- Our weekly Stammtisch will continue this year beginning at 5:30PM on Thursdays and continuing as long as people are still interested. It will take place at Le Coin Social.
- Our peer tutor has begun holding sessions in Sherbrooke 688 Room 389 every Tuesday and Thursday.
- We are hosting Bagelstunde from 4pm through 6pm in Sherbrooke 688 every first and third Monday of the month. Students from all faculties/departments are encouraged to come and practice their German.
- Sprachwochende is this weekend; a number of German speaking students will be attending, including a few of the GSA executive.

Projects

- The GSA is still searching for an Oktoberfest to attend (suitable price and distance). We intend to have one found by the 29th.
- We have opened applications for VP Internal, VP Events Coordinator, and VP Special Projects
- Our Wine & Cheese is tentatively planned for the 20th of November. We are reaching out to professors in the German Studies program to see if they want to speak at the event.
- Our first samosa sale is still in the works.
- We are still reaching out for submissions to the German Undergraduate Studies Journal (Vielfalt) in preparation for its 2019 release.
- We are still workshopping an apartment crawl in which the GSA would host a German themed stop (similar to last year's).
- We are exploring the idea of a Trivia Night during the Winter Semester

Respectfully Submitted,

Xavier Palmer
Vice-President External of the German Studies' Association
