

Motion to Approve New Religious Studies Undergraduate Society Logo

Whereas, the current RSUS logo was created two years ago and contains specific religious symbols which represent some but not all of the religions studied in the School of Religious Studies, and the current RSUS executive feels that this is exclusionary.

Whereas, for the purposes of promotional material, merchandise, etc. RSUS would benefit from a new logo which reflects our values of inclusion.

Be it resolved, the AUS Legislative Council approve RSUS's decision to change our official logo, with the current and proposed logos properly labelled below:
