

Religious Studies Undergraduate Society (RSUS) Departmental Report (27/11/19)

General

- No meeting 18 November.
- Meeting 25 November discussed upcoming event plans and checked in about the position of the RSUS team regarding the Hillel trip for the Legislative Council questions/debate.

Events

- Finals season study-break event in the works for 4 December to be held in the Birks common room from 12h-15h, with holiday snacks provided.
- Currently in rudimentary planning stages for two panels (one interdepartmental, one within the SRS) for the Winter semester, with a plan for the interdepartmental panel.
- Planning a trip to Québec City with Professor Torrence Kirby occurring on 20 March.

Internal Affairs

- Gender neutral bathroom signs were ordered and will be installed soon.
- TUSA Constitution has officially been amended and they are no longer part of RSUS.

Finances

- Submitted applications for external funding to cover the costs of the 20 March Québec City trip.

Communications

- Endorsing the SSMUnion on Facebook and in a listserv.

Respectfully submitted,

Mo Rajji Courtney
RSUS VP External