

Report of the Society of Linguistics Undergraduates of McGill Wednesday Nov 13, 2019

Events:

- SLUMPKIN PIE event
  - SLUM's annual pie eating event was held on Nov. 4th. We had a great selection of delicious pies and a great turnout!
- Departmental SWAG (SLUMWEAR) monies have all been collected for orders. Orders are now closed, and our VP-Events will be submitting the order to the manufacturer imminently so orders can be received before the winter break (slated for early December).
- SLUM held a workshop for the typesetting program LaTeX on Nov. 4th.
- Annual B&P scheduled for Nov. 19th (6-8:00 PM).
- Was planning to hold hot chocolate fundraiser, was given the OK by AUS on Friday, then was told this was not ok on Monday at 10:30 PM. Budget affected as a result.

Internal Events:

- In the process of reviving our undergraduate journal The Cellar Door. We've created a subcommittee and will be applying to funds imminently. We'll be collecting submissions come the beginning of next semester.
- Attempting to promote the EarthLing initiative in the department.
- Considering Constitutional amendments;
  - Considering abolishing the internal position of VP-Fundraising.
  - We want to develop a framework within our constitution to hold GAs.

Respectfully submitted,
Mathieu Hergett-Rozier
SLUM VP External