

Report of McGill Society of Undergraduate Mathematics Students (SUMS) March 12th 2020

Sales

- We have successfully sold our SUMS apparel and have made approximately $1400

Events

- Tickets for our AWKWARD semi-formal are now live and almost sold out, it will be held this Saturday March 14th starting at 8pm
- We will be holding a “Pi Day” event this week, where we will be solving puzzles with PhDs and eating pie.
- We are also hosting a Trivia Night on March 18th (location TBD)
- We are planning on hosting a SUMS Bagels bonding event towards the end of the semester for all our constituents
- Our SUMS Wine and Cheese was held on Feb 18th with excellent turnout from both professors and students
- We held a “de-stress” event in which we brought therapy dogs into our lounge
- We have also held several movie nights in our lounge this semester in order to help undergraduates get to know one another.

Respectfully Submitted,
