

Economic Student Association (ESA)

Twelfth Report - March 7th, 2021

Recurring PSA: The ESA's new website is live at esamcgill.com!!!! Find all the info you need about the ESA, such as our team, mandates & constitution, and portfolios on there!

General & Portfolio Updates

- ESA Executive Team currently meeting on Monday afternoons at 1:30 pm EST
- ESA Helpdesk continues weekly operations on Monday and Tuesday evenings from 5:30 to 8:00 pm EST over Zoom
 - Access to the Helpdesk: <http://www.esamcgill.com/helpdesk>
 - Students are welcome to reach out to any of the three tutors with questions in their core Economics courses any time before sessions begin as well!
- McGill Journal of Economics (MJE) 2021 has completed its call for submissions for academic research papers, where we received nearly twenty papers!!!
 - First set of Op-Eds have been written and are available on new ESA website, new batch to be published the week of March 8th
 - All teams are still meeting weekly or biweekly over Zoom and remain ahead of schedule compared to last year - super proud of the leadership team :-)
- ESA has begun reviewing its constitution, looking to send to CBRC in the next week-ish
- ESA Mentorship Program for first-year/U1 students, led by Majors Representative and VP Communications, is well under way

Upcoming

- Executive and portfolio teams will continue meeting weekly/biweekly over Zoom during the Winter 2021 semester
- ESA still intends to have our constitution updated ahead of departmental elections at the month's end

Best regards,

Connor Hausmann
ESA VP External