Report of International Development Studies Student Association (IDSSA) to the AUS Council (02/08/17)

General Updates

- Office hours are now by appointment and can be scheduled either via email at idssamcgill@gmail.com or through our Facebook page.
- The IDSSA is undergoing a hiring process for a new VP-Communications. At the time of writing this report they have not been chosen, but will be by the end of the week.

Past Projects / Events

- The IDSSA hosted an event for I-Week called “Let’s Get Quizzical” in which participants were tested on skill-based questions about development issues.

Current Projects / Events

- The IDSSA has ordered apparel for students in the program and are running special office hours this week to hand them out.
- The Publications Committee has finished accepting all submissions and is currently going through the editing phase.

Upcoming Projects / Events

- The IDSSA is in discussion about hosting a possible conference for IDS students in late March that will have themed panels on each of the four IDS streams. More information on this will come in future meetings.
- The IDSSA will be offering a samosa sale on February 13th in Leacock.

The next meeting of the IDSSA is scheduled for Thursday, February 9th from 6:30PM – 8:00PM in the IDSSA office (Leacock 541).

Respectfully Submitted,

Nicholas Milum
VP External, IDSSA
