

Report of the Classics Students' Association (CSA) AUS Council (April 5, 2017)

Departmental Updates

- Internal: we held departmental elections on March 28, and managed to fill all executive positions successfully.
 - The current executives are writing their exit reports.
- We discussed holding a 'Classics Charades' event to end the semester, but have postponed it till next year, due to a lack of time and resources.
- Academic: there has been some confusion amongst students regarding changes to the Classics program next year, especially since the eCalendar and Classics website are somewhat unclear. We are communicating with the professors to clarify things, and will include a statement in next week's CSA listserv.
- Hirundo: the Editor-in-Chief has finished a Charter which clearly outlines the aims of Hirundo, and its editors' responsibilities.
 - This year's journal has been successfully completed and published.

Past/Upcoming Events

- We held a bake sale on March 27, and two info tables on March 24 and 30, where we sold our Classics mugs.
- The Hirundo/Rostra launch wine & cheese is tonight at 6-9PM in RVC West Lounge, hence the absence of the CSA representative at Council today. Please join us afterwards!

Our final meeting will be on Friday April 7, at 5:30 PM in LEA 817.

Respectfully submitted,

Claudia Shek
