

Report of Political Science Students' Association

General

- Members of the PSSA exec have participated in departmental interviews as part of the ongoing effort to hire a new professor.
- The President is working with Prof. Scholtz to revise the current department regrading policy.
- The President met with the AUS President to discuss changes made by the previous year's executive to the PSSA constitution. This motion will be put before the AUS legislative council in the coming month.
- PSSA Apparel forms have been released. Order your gear before November 12!
- PSSA portfolios have had their photos taken, these will be uploaded to the website in the coming weeks.

External

- The VP External met last week with the President of Concordia's PSSA to debrief following last month's trivia night, and to discuss working together in the future. Keep an eye out for exciting events to come!
- The Jeux de la Science Politique team for the 2018 games has been selected and will be having their team bonding and dinner this Friday, Nov. 10.
- The PSSA-MGAPSS mentorship program applications have now closed. The External portfolio is working on matching pairs, which will be announced later this week.

Academic

- The McGill Journal of Political Studies has opened its call for submissions; students have until November 11 to submit their work to the journal. Details are on our Facebook page.
- The Data Analysis club held its first session last week.
- The PSSA Peer Tutoring program will begin this week.

Events

- There have not been any events held recently.
- The next PSSA event will be our wine and cheese networking event, scheduled for November 14.

Respectfully Submitted,

Liam Kirkpatrick
