Report of the African Studies Students' Association

Departmental Updates

- We are accepting essays for our academic journal, Uhuru, and will be making announcements in several classes.

Past Events

- Last week, we had a small information session with Professor Khalid Medani and Dr. Phillip Gooding. Several undergraduate students from different programs were in attendance. Both professors shared valuable information on what the program could offer and answered any questions and concerns from students.
