

Report of the African Studies Students' Association

Departmental Updates

- We are accepting essays for our academic journal, Uhuru, and will be making announcements in several classes.
- We sent out a survey to all students in African Studies and those who have taken courses related to African Studies to gain feedback.
- We have our office back.

Upcoming Events

- We are organizing a film screening that will take place in our office during the last week of February. There will be snacks and coffee, and a discussion will follow the screening.

Respectfully Submitted,
