

Report of the ASA Executive Board, AUS Council November 28th 2018

Overview

On Friday November 23rd, the ASA Executive Board met with the intention of rewriting our constitution, and we were able to produce a rough draft by the end of the night. In preparation for our General Assembly on Tuesday November 27th, we are continuously editing the new constitution and preparing an agenda.

President Mayra Castellanos

- Consistently keeps everyone on track and plans an agenda for our weekly meetings

VP Events Isabella Daniele and Khando Langri

- Are busy planning film screenings and other events starting early next semester
- Are planning a bake sale for early December

VP Academic Chloe Wong-Mersereau

- Is working with the department on an anthropology-focused complaint form
- Is working on producing ASA/McGill sweaters for the new year

VP Internal Jordanna Gisser

- Is working with the department on future hiring possibilities and procedures within anthropology
- Is working on a procedure that will help professors choose readings (and course content) without overlap

VP Communications Sarah Nelson

- Consistently send out the listserv email every week
- Is keeping track of ASA events and updates in order to post it on our Facebook page

VP External Ella Martindale

- Helping Chloe with sweaters
- Providing feedback on other people's endeavours at this time

VP Finance Damian Arteca

- Is planning the budget for next semester
- Is working with the VP Events on the budget for our events next semester

VP Publications Camille Ballick

- Has called for editors for the anthropology journal (Fields/Terrains)