Report of Canadian Studies Association of Undergraduate Students – CSAUS, AUS Council 28 November 2018

Initial Notes

- Eight executive meetings have been held so far;
- Our first event of the year, at the Chateau Ramezay, happened on November 10 – thank you to all who attended... it was a lot of fun!
- Executive photos were published on Facebook and the McGill Institute for the Study of Canada (MISC) website
- Secretary and President met to discuss the publications manual, to help transition Canadian Content publishing in future years, given all current editorial board members are leaving this year
- 14 applicants applied to join the Canadian Content editorial board – decisions will be made and sent out this week by the editors-in-chief.

Upcoming

- Our first CANS 200 study session is being held on Tuesday, November 27th @ 5:30pm in Arts 260
 - Both TAs will also be attending, so we hope to fully answer students' questions and inform them more about CANS as a program
 - Food and beverages will be provided!
- Our second study session will be informally held on Tuesday, December 4th between 10:30am and 3pm in the MISC's Reading Room
 - Members of the Executive will be available to answer questions about the study guide/taking exams at McGill.
- We will also be having a post-study session/end-of-semester pub night... details to follow this week!

Next Meeting

- Next CSAUS Executive meeting: Wednesday, November 28th @ 11am @ Cyberthèque Pod 3
- Priorities at the meeting will be to finalize preparations for the winter publishing season, and to organize our end-of-semester pub night.

Respectfully Submitted,
Aidan Fehr, Secretary
