

Report of the German Studies Association (October 30, 2019)

Present

- Our weekly Stammtisch will continue this year beginning at 5:30PM on Thursdays and continuing as long as people remain. It will take place at Le Coin Social.
- Our peer tutor is holding sessions in Sherbrooke 688 Room 389 every Tuesday and Thursday.
- We are hosting Bagelstunde from 4pm through 6pm in Sherbrooke 688 every first and third Monday of the month. Students from all faculties/departments are encouraged to come and practice their German.
- We recruited a new VP Special Projects and VP Internal for next semester
- We are hosting our first Wine & Cheese on November 20th from 6-8PM in Arts 160 where two professors will speak about German topics.
- Our apartment crawl is taking place on the 8th of November in collaboration with CLASHA.

Projects

- We are still reaching out for submissions to the German Undergraduate Studies Journal (Vielfalt) in preparation for its 2019 release.
- We are exploring the idea of a Trivia Night during the Winter Semester
- We are searching for an Editor in Chief for the Vielfalt journal.

Respectfully Submitted,

Xavier Palmer
Vice-President External of the German Studies' Association
