

Report for the Caribbean and Latin American Studies & Hispanic Studies Association

01/29/2020

Past Events:

Event: SDG Conversations: Urban Development in Latin America

Date: January 27th

Info: We hosted a joint roundtable discussion on urban development in Latin America alongside the IDSSA in their SDG Conversations series. Many people came to interact with the speakers.

Event: Wine and Cheese

Date: January 28th

Info: We hosted a CLASHS wine and cheese event for major and minor students and invited professors and grad students from within the department as well. Food was provided and many students came to the event.

Upcoming Events:

Event: Valentine's Day Bake Sale

Date: February 14th

Info: We will be having a bake sale at Burnside on Valentine's Day in order to fundraise for future events and activities we are planning for this semester. We will be baking by ourselves.

Event: Bake Sale

Date: February 28th

Info: We will be having a bake sale at McConnell in order to fundraise for future events and activities we are planning for this semester. We will be baking by ourselves.

Event: Voces Journal Launch Party

Date: TBD

Info: Discussions are being held with the VP Journals and VP Finance to determine where and when. We are also currently accepting submissions to our journal, Voces, from any LACS/HISP student's graded work.

Event: Apartment Crawl

Date: TBD

Info: Discussions are being held with Salseros to hold a joint apartment crawl this semester.

Event: Brazilian Literature Panel

Date: TBD, February

Info: Discussions are being held with SLASA to collaborate on a Brazilian literature panel event and invite a special guest speaker as well.

Respectfully Submitted,

Joy Kwak

CLASHSA VP External