

Events

- The HSA hosted our “Love in the Time of” Lecture series, co-hosted with the CSA, featuring numerous engaging professors from our two faculties, including Professor Ironside and Professor Elbourne.
- We will be having an HSA Research Brunch on Thursday, February 27th in ARTS 160 from 1-3pm.
- March events: Hidden Histories Student Lecture Series (LEA 232) 6-8, Wine&Cheese (ARTS 160 6-7:30), Women in History Panel (Date TBF)
- Finals: Historical Discourses Launch Event, HSA Exam De-stress

Goals and Current Projects

- The HSA still has sweater orders remaining from last semester. Come pick up in the HSA office, Leacock 629.
- The HSA has been working closely with the department to fill two vacancies in the faculty, following the departure of two professors in the field of Canadian History and African History.
- HSA is continuing to work on our annual website revitalization project.
- Following a consensus amongst our executives, the HSA is proud to be spearheading bringing student governmental condemnations of homophobic and transphobic blood collection practices to AUS and SSMU Legislative Councils.
